Sir:

Applicant filed a Reply on January 7, 2002, to Paper No. 6, an Office Action mailed September 5, 2001. To date, applicant has received no further action from the PTO.

The Facts

Subsequent to applicant's filing of the Reply of January 7, 2002, and upon hearing nothing further from the PTO, applicant filed a first request for status on December 27, 2002.

Applicant then filed a second request for status on June 27, 2003.

On July 8, 2003, applicant received from the PTO a handwritten note written at the bottom of a copy of the status request of June 27, 2003, that "Office Action mailed out on Sept. 5, 2001".

No other feedback having been received from the PTO, applicant filed by fax, on January 8, 2004, a copy of applicant's Reply of January 7, 2002, together with our postcard receipt on which the PTO acknowledged receipt of applicant's Reply filed January 7, 2002. Attached as Exhibit A are (1) a copy of telefax control sheet addressed to Examiner Lee Wilson as Exhibit A-1, (2) a copy of postcard receipt in which the PTO acknowledged receipt of applicant's Reply filed January 7, 2002, as exhibit A-2, and (3) and a copy our fax receipt evidencing receipt by the PTO of applicant's 12 page fax on January 8, 2004, at fax number 703-746-3284, as exhibit A-3.

Still, applicant received no feedback from the PTO; and so on March 1, 2004, applicant submitted a third request for status (incorrectly marked "Second Request For Status"). In reply to that third request for status, we received a communication from Larry I. Schwartz, Administrator, Customer Service Center, that the "case is being flagged Lost and reconstructions will take place shortly. Carolyn Brown, 703-308-2192, will be handling the reconstruction process."

In view of the fact that both the first copy (original) and the second copy of applicant's Reply filed January 7, 2002, may have been lost in the PTO, attached herewith is a third copy of such Reply.

Applicant respectfully requests prompt action from the PTO.

Respectfully submitted,
